

AMESA Western Cape Regional Conference and Annual General Meeting

31 October 2009

Cape Peninsula University of Technology, Highbury Road, Mowbray

Click for map

08:45-09:15	Registration
09:15-09:30	Welcome by President, Faaiz Gierdien (Hall)
09:30-10:00	Plenary talk by Vera Frith of UCT's Numeracy Centre (Hall) Mathematical literacy as a preparation for Higher Education
10:15-11:00	Venue 1 Foundation Phase The essence of data handling in grades 1-5 Helena Wessels	Venue 2 Intermediate Phase Factor Bingo: A game for grade 6 Connie Skelton	Venue 3 Senior Phase Teaching Gr 9 in Oregon USA: Mathematics is a common language Biddy Cameron	Venue 4 FET Transformations: Geometry Dalene Fahrenfort	Venue 5 Tertiary Socio-cultural approaches in learning differential calculus Sibawu Siyepu
11:00-11:45	Tea (Hall)
11:45-12:15	Annual General Meeting (Hall)
12:15-13:00	Venue 1 Foundation Phase Linking number and number patterns Gabeba Agherdien	Venue 2 Intermediate Phase Numbers old and new John Webb	Venue 3 Senior Phase Getting the view right: Exploring 3D objects Stanley Adendorff	Venue 4 FET What is ZOME geometry? Zolile Kashana	Venue 5 Tertiary First-year mathematics: the UWC experience Washiela Fish

Registration fee – free for members.

Non-members can sign up as members at the conference, which will entitle them to attend future workshops for free, as well as innumerable, other benefits. For further details and to book, call 021-808 2289 or email faaiz@sun.ac.za Membership costs R100 for individuals and-R260 for institutions per year.