

Proof Without Words: Parallel Lines Passing Through the Points of Intersection of Two Circles

Moshe Stupel^{1,2} & Victor Oxman³

¹*Shaanan College, Haifa, Israel*

²*Gordon College of Education, Haifa, Israel*

³*Western Galilee College, Acre, Israel*

stupel@bezeqint.net victor.oxman@gmail.com

CD and EF are parallel lines that pass through the points of intersection of two circles, A and B. With such a configuration it will always be true that $CD = EF$, since quadrilateral DCEF is a parallelogram.

Proof:

